Rutgers Football On The Air

All Rutgers games will be broadcast by WCTC, 1450 AM, with a growing list of New Jersey stations picking up a feed from the flagship station. The student station, WRSU, 88.7 FM, will also originate each game. Jersey Vision, New Jersey Public TV (Channels 23, 50, 52, 58) plans taping select games.

Dr. Edward J. Bloustein President

The 17th president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, Dr. Edward J. Bloustein is at once a lawyer, a political theorist, a former political analyst for the State Department, professional philosopher, international scholar and teacher.

And he is without a doubt Rutgers' number one sports buff, present and urging on the Scarlet Knights at every sporting event he is able to attend.

Dr. Bloustein was educated at New York University's Washington Square College, where he was graduated as a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He went on to earn a Bachelor of Philosophy degree at Wadham College of Oxford University in 1950, after attending Oxford as a Fulbright Scholar. He earned a Ph.D. in philosophy at Cornell University in 1954 and a law degree there in 1959.

Dr. Bloustein was a lecturer in the philosophy of the law and social philosophy at Brooklyn College in 1950-51 and instructor in logic and philosophy at Cornell in 1954-55. He also served as a political analyst for the State Department in 1951-52 and again in 1955-56.

Dr. Bloustein served as a law clerk

Frederick E. Gruninger Athletic Director

A member of the Rutgers Athletic Department since 1964, Fred Gruninger assumed the duties of Athletic Director in January, 1973, and is now in his eighth year as head of the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation. His leadership has been one of indefatigable effort, unbridled enthusiasm and confident energy.

A 1953 Rutgers graduate, Gruninger played football and baseball as a collegian and later excelled at golf, turning to the professional links for a brief period. As the Scarlet Knight golf coach from 1964 to 1973, he recorded an outstanding 109-30-2 mark. Prior to his appointment in 1973, he served as assistant, then associate athletic director for nine years after a five-year stint in the alumni relations department.

Gruninger's aggressive leadership, during which Rutgers has fielded an undefeated football team, a basketball squad which won 31 consecutive games and advanced to the Final Four, a woman's court squad which has been in the Final Four and the Final Eight, and a woman's swimming team which won 28 straight meets, the athletic program has grown from 16 men's sports to 29 for men and women. His scheduling genius has generated grid games with such major opponents as Penn State, Alabama, Tennessee and Pittsburgh.

A native of Fanwood and a resident of Martinsville, Gruninger credits talented players and a dedicated coaching staff to the success of Rutgers football. The third ingredient, "particularly as the program heads into the 1980's for the continuation of our successes, is ... the Rutgers fan!"

to Judge Stanley H. Fuld of the New York State Court of Appeals from 1959-1961, when he joined the New York University School of Law as an assistant professor. He rose to the rank of full professor in 1964.

When Dr. Bloustein assumed the presidency in 1971 of Rutgers, the eighth oldest university in the United States, he had been president, since 1965, of Bennington College, a small, highly-regarded experimental liberal arts college in Bennington, Vt.

As befits a man of logical thought and training, Dr. Bloustein is a decisive administrator and is constantly challenging the future. His concerns are reflected in his recent Commencement Address:

... science and technological change are not antithetical to human values. It may be that the scientific genie cannot be returned to its bottle, but it can be harnessed to work for us rather than against us. We suffer, not from too much knowledge of science, but from too little knowledge of morals and too little appreciation of the instruments of social and political control necessary to harness science and technology for human will and purpose. We require more, not less knowledge, more knowledge to relieve our ethical quandries as we go about creating a more fulfilling life with a more advanced technology.

I urge you to go forth from this university as prometheans ... Wed your arts and sciences to human need and help us restore and refurbish our sense of social responsibility. This, rather than a return to the dark eras of ignorance, superstition, illness and deprivation, in the guise of reestablishing the purity and simplicity of life, is the true challenge you face.

Frank Burns

— A Singular Career

During that Golden Era of Rutgers football — that postwar period between 1945 and 1948 when the Scarlet Knights won 27 of 34 games, Frank Burns was selected to the All-East team twice, received honorable mention notice on a number of All-America squads, played in the 1949 East-West Shrine game and was named the most valuable player in the Herald Tribune All-Star contest.

Burns began his collegiate career as a 17-year old in charge of a Scarlet offense composed largely of World War II veterans and quickly picked up the nickname, “Flinging Frank,” an alliterative title he deserved as he set about establishing passing marks which remained Rutgers records for some 20 years. His four-year totals were 155 completions in 402 attempts for 2,751 yards and 25 touchdowns. His own products, Rich Policastro, Leo Gasienica and Bert Kosup now own the marks.

The young QB brought in some weighty credentials from Roselle Park, where he was a three-sport standout for four years. He had captained his football and basketball squads, had earned All-State honors in football and baseball for two seasons and in basketball once. His grid team had taken the Group II state title in 1943 and 1944 and the court squad was the state champ in 1945.

The honors continued to stack up at Rutgers, where he played baseball for four years, and basketball for one. It was in the fall, however, that he became the idol of Scarlet fans, many of whom still fondly recall the era and even more fondly, recount it. As a freshman in 1945, Burns led the Scarlet to a 5-2 record and followed that with a 7-2 mark which included a 53-0 win over Johns Hopkins, where he would become head coach five years later.

Doubling as a ferocious linebacker, Burns took Rutgers to an 8-1 mark in 1947 accumulating a record 911 yards passing and 11 TDs. Burns and his Golden Era teammates recall, in particular, the defensive strength of the 1947 Scarlet. In fact, by vote at their Silver Anniversary celebration, they cited the 1947 Princeton game (and the Tiger game the next season in Palmer Stadium) as the highlights of their careers.

The 1947 Princeton game was the first in Rutgers Stadium between the rivals since 1938 when the Scarlet dedicated the stadium with the first Rutgers win since 1869. Burns led a defense that limited the Tigers to just 51 yards on the ground and, though not given to reciting his own achievements, remembers his game-saving tackle in the 13-7 win. “I wasn’t the world’s fastest man but somehow I caught Cowie (a 9.6 sprinter) at our 25-yard line.” That was at the end of a 47-yard completion that threatened the victory.

Rutgers went 7-2 in 1948 under the leadership of the senior class president who again excelled in the 22-6 win at Princeton. Winless in 32 straight games at Palmer Stadium, Rutgers figured the hex remained when the home team scored after just four minutes. But, Burns’ 46-yard TD toss to Dick Cramer gave the visitors a lead they never relinquished.

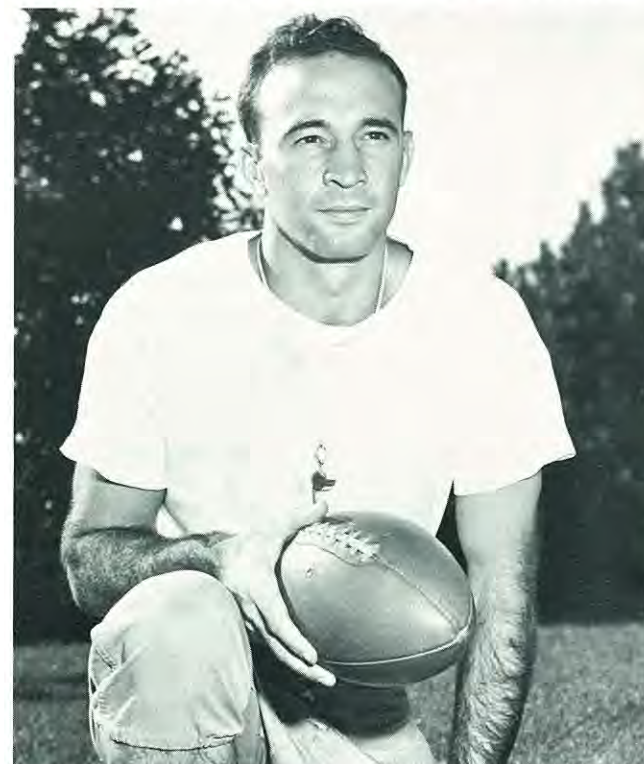

In the era of one-platoon football, the Scarlet coach often saw 60-minutes of action with brilliant play as a linebacker. In fact, it was his defensive excellence which earned him the MVP award in the 28-13 upset of the New York Giants by the Eastern College All-Stars in the Polo Grounds in 1949. In on only one offensive play, Burns was credited with 17 tackles and came away with a television set presented by Mad Man Muntz.

A little known tid-bit about that game is that Burns was brilliant at quarterback in an intrasquad game as the All-Stars prepped for the annual Herald Tribune Fresh Air Fund contest. He led the Gold Squad to a 21-7 decision over the White team, completing 10 of 15 passes, twice connecting for four straight. Columbia’s Gene Rossides would handle the QB duties against the Giants as Burns closed out his collegiate career with one of his greatest performances.

A measure of the player is his recent remark: “When I was held out of the defense for some reason, I resented it . . . The one thing I remember vividly about the teams I played on is that we felt we never would lose. We had a great attitude toward winning and what I would hope all my teams have had, and will have, is the same confidence we had back in the forties.”

Following his final season as a player, Burns was back that fall, coaching the running backs. But, in 1951, he decided to take a shot as head coach at Johns Hopkins as a 23-year old. He produced a 6-9-2 record for a pair of seasons before returning as freshman head coach at his alma mater in 1953. After two seasons, he was promoted to the varsity as backfield coach under Harvey Harman in 1955 and kept the post under John Stiegman in 1956.

Chatham High School beckoned in 1957 and Burns accepted the challenge of building a program that had lain dormant for 25 years. That mission accomplished, he returned to Rutgers to coach the offensive backs from 1961 to 1967. John Bateman named Burns offensive coordinator in 1968, a position he held until appointed head coach in 1973.

In his first season as head coach, Burns compiled a 6-5 record, the first of seven straight winning campaigns. In 1974, the Scarlet improved to 7-3-1 which included an impressive Rutgers Stadium win over Air Force and the celebrated 6-6 stalemate with Princeton, the first tie in the record book since 1952 and the only one for his career at Rutgers. The Scarlet won the final seven games in 1975 for a 9-2 mark and added 11 consecutive victories in 1976 for an 18-game win streak and the first undefeated season since 1961. The Scarlet squad was ranked 17th in the nation and became only the sixth team in NCAA history to lead the nation in three defensive categories.

Burns was honored as the Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Foundation and the New Jersey Football Writers (he received the latter award again in 1978 and 1979). His squad was the ECAC’s Team of the Year.

The 1977 season opened with a pair of losses but Rutgers rebounded with five straight wins. At that point, Burns suffered a heart attack and missed the final four games of the 8-3 season. Six months later, in May, he underwent a successful quadruple artery operation and spent the summer in recuperation. He was back to full-time duty in August, prepping for a season that would flower into a 9-3 mark, a third place Lambert Trophy standing and Rutgers first bowl game. The Garden State Bowl loss to Arizona State did not dim a season that saw nine straight victories between an opening and closing loss.

Last year’s 13-7 win over Tennessee in Knoxville might stand as Burns’ (and Rutgers’) most memorable victory but seven others in 1979 were also significant as the coach’s seven-year record went to 58-19-1. It was a season in which eight victories was not a totally realistic hope in August. What a joy it was in November!

For some 40 years, Burns has gone into Augusts with the confidence that all successful players and coaches have. His Novembers have always been the product of that confidence.

Scarlet Assistants — Offense

BILL SPERANZA, OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

An outstanding quarterback during his playing days at Rutgers, Bill Speranza enters his eighth season as offensive backfield coach and his fourth as offensive coordinator for the Scarlet.

Speranza was involved with two undefeated football campaigns at Rutgers, leading his Scarlet team to a perfect 9-0 log in 1961 as a player and serving as offensive backfield coach during the stellar 11-0 1976 season.

A 1962 Rutgers graduate, Speranza began his coaching career in 1965 when he guided the Knight's freshman team to a 5-0 mark. Two years later, after the sub-varsity unit compiled another unbeaten (5-0) season, Speranza became coach of the varsity defensive backs.

Speranza is credited with the development of running back "JJ" Jennings, who led the nation in scoring in 1973. Record-setting quarterback Bert Kosup, durable Mike Fisher and, most recently, fullback Glen Kehler and quarterback Ed McMichael are bright spots on Speranza's long list of credits.

Bill and his wife Linda live in Bridgewater with their two daughters, Susan and Karen.

Bill Speranza

Greg Gigantino

JAMES TAIGIA, OFFENSIVE LINE

A veteran member of the Rutgers coaching staff, Jim Taigia has been in charge of the Scarlet offensive line since 1968.

A former Scarlet Knight football player and an ex-sailor, the "Chief" has the uncanny ability to get the word across when he barks orders to his offensive troops while his insistent methods have motivated Rutgers linemen for eleven years.

Taigia performed as a tough two-way guard on the 1947, 48 and 49 teams and helped the Scarlet Knights sail through 8-1, 7-2, and 6-3 campaigns. After an outstanding scholastic coaching career at Rahway, Piscataway and Hillside, Taigia accepted a coaching position at his alma mater.

The veteran coach, a former basketball official, is especially noted for the development of the Scarlet's outstanding 1976 offensive line, a unit that made 287 points possible during the 11-0 campaign.

Taigia, a long-time resident of Highland Park, now resides on the Jersey Shore in Bay Head with his wife, Ruth.

GREG GIGANTINO, CENTERS

A former collegiate linebacker at Wagner College, Greg Gigantino begins his first season as a full-time member of Frank Burns' Rutgers football coaching staff.

Gigantino, a part-time Rutgers assistant since 1978, will handle the offensive centers in addition to various recruiting responsibilities.

A 1977 graduate of Wagner, Gigantino played for four years as a linebacker at the Staten Island school but has been familiar with Rutgers football for many years.

Gigantino, who coached the varsity receivers at Indiana University of Pennsylvania before joining the Scarlet staff, attended J.P. Stevens High School in nearby Edison and has been interested in Rutgers football since his scholastic playing days.

Tom Sherman

TOM SHERMAN, RECEIVERS

A former Penn State quarterback and a professional football player in four leagues, Tom Sherman begins his first season as a member of the Rutgers football coaching staff.

Sherman lettered for three years at Penn State as a signal-caller, split end and defensive back and directed the Nittany Lions to the 1967 Gator Bowl against Florida State.

After graduating from Penn State in 1968 with a degree in health and physical education, Sherman was involved in professional football for ten years before returning to his alma mater as a part-time assistant coach last year.

Sherman played quarterback for the Boston Patriots in 1968 and 1969 and the Buffalo Bills in 1969. From 1970-73, he was a member of the Hartford Knights of the Atlantic Coast League. In 1974 and 1975, Sherman played in the World Football League with the New York Stars and the Charlotte Hornets before concluding his playing career with the Calgary Stampeders.

Sherman, who will work with the Scarlet receivers, resides in East Windsor with his wife, Ruth. The Shermans have two sons and a daughter.

Scarlet Assistants — Defense

TED COTTRELL, DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

A former professional football player with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers, Ted Cottrell begins his eighth season on the Scarlet coaching staff and first as defensive coordinator.

Cottrell, who coached the defensive line for eight years and molded his charges into one of the most brilliant units on the Rutgers football team, was promoted to defensive coordinator when Bob Naso left the Scarlet staff to take over as head coach at Columbia University after the completion of the 1979 season.

A graduate of Delaware Valley College, where he won All-Middle Atlantic Conference honors for three years as a grid star, Cottrell's proteges include All-Americans Nate Toran, Ed Steward and Dino Mangiero and such other standouts as Steve Allen, Paul Krasnavage, John Alexander and Mike Rustemeyer.

Cottrell's imposing manner and concern for his players helped him earn the respect of all associated with Scarlet football following his appointment as one of Frank Burns' aides in 1973.

A former resident of Chester, Pa., Cottrell now resides in New Brunswick with his wife, Barbara.

PART TIME ASSISTANTS

The Scarlet coaching staff will include the following part-time assistants: Mel Caseiro, Bob Guarini, Bob Hering, Jack Hohnstine, and Oakley Pandick.

Earle Mosley

George De Leone

GEORGE DE LEONE, DEFENSIVE LINE

A native of New Haven and a veteran of Connecticut scholastic and collegiate football, George DeLeone is anxious to start his first season as a member of the Scarlet coaching fraternity.

The personable coach will handle the defensive line, one of the most brilliant units over the years on the Rutgers football team.

DeLeone, a 1970 University of Connecticut graduate and a holder of a masters degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State College, joined the football staff at Southern Connecticut in 1970, serving as varsity offensive line coach for six years before taking over as head coach in 1976.

Under DeLeone's guidance, Southern Connecticut fashioned a 15-24 mark in four seasons, including a 5-4 campaign in 1976.

DeLeone played on the offensive line at Fairfield Prep before moving on to Connecticut where he won three varsity letters as a collegiate player.

Known as an outstanding recruiter, DeLeone and his wife, Roberta, reside in North Brunswick.

EARLE MOSLEY, DEFENSIVE BACKS

A newcomer to the Scarlet football coaching staff after serving for four years as head football coach at Chester (Pa.) High School and one season as an assistant coach at West Chester State College, Earle Mosley will handle the defensive backs at Rutgers.

A 1969 West Chester graduate, Mosley earned three letters as a defensive safety during years in which West Chester won three Eastern Division championships and one state title. He captained his freshman squad to an undefeated season and served as a tri-captain as a senior.

Mosley received Delaware County Coach of the Year honors in 1975 and is a veteran of U.S. Army Infantry.

The new Scarlet coach and his wife, Marlane, are the parents of two daughters and reside in Piscataway.

Mike Jacobs

MIKE JACOBS, DEFENSIVE ENDS-OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

A part-time assistant at Rutgers for two years, Mike Jacobs was appointed as a full-time member of the Scarlet football coaching staff following the 1979 season.

Jacobs, a 1972 graduate of Wagner College, will be in charge of the Scarlet defensive ends and outside linebackers.

A native of Brooklyn, Jacobs was an assistant coach at Poly Prep High School in Brooklyn for five years and served as an assistant at Thomas Jefferson High School in the Big Apple before casting his lot with the Scarlet in 1978.

A holder of a bachelors degree in history from Wagner, Jacobs and his wife, Donna, live in New York City.

“What Are Rutgers?”

— The 1979 Season —

Knoxville Journal sports editor Ben Byrd should have been invited to the local Touchdown Club's post-season banquet. And, given his part in the stunning victory over Tennessee a couple of months earlier, he just might have come. Though certainly a Volunteer regular, he had to have enjoyed that kind of game and the meaning it had for the group of sassy invaders from New Jersey.

Byrd's Free Thought Association football predictions ran on the morning of the game and blatantly forecast a Tennessee victory. The prediction itself was eminently fair in that the Volunteers had not lost to an Eastern team since 1941 and was 18-3 against teams from the East since 1921. Furthermore, it was Homecoming Day with Knoxville favorite John Tate leading the parade. And 84,265 people wearing orange would be there screaming for blood, the kind the Scarlet would be expected to spill on the artificial turf. Scouts from five bowl games were there, too.

Ranked 17th in the nation with a 4-2 record that included a 27-17 loss to Alabama the week before, Tennessee was at least a three touchdown favorite over 5-2 Rutgers which had lost to Penn State and Temple.

Byrd flew away with his prediction:

“People around here just don't know a lot about New Jersey and the east, and I guess I have been asked a hundred times this week, ‘What are Rutgers?’ Some people seem to think that they are something like mathematics or physics. Others say they always come in groups, and that it is impossible to find just one rutger by itself. One housewife told me that she bought a pound of them at the supermarket last week for fifty-nine cents, but they must have been on sale because another lady said that she usually pays eighty-nine cents for them. This one man who has been up east told me that he doesn't know exactly what Rutgers are but he's pretty sure that they are quite a bit like yonkers. Now, if I just knew what yonkers were.”

Tennessee would soon discover the cost although its opening drive suited the intended script, the Volunteers scoring their lone TD after just 5:09. The rest would be Rutgers, with a capital R, as the Scarlet netted 388 total yards and limited the Vols to 257 (84 in the first series). Only 93 came from rushing.

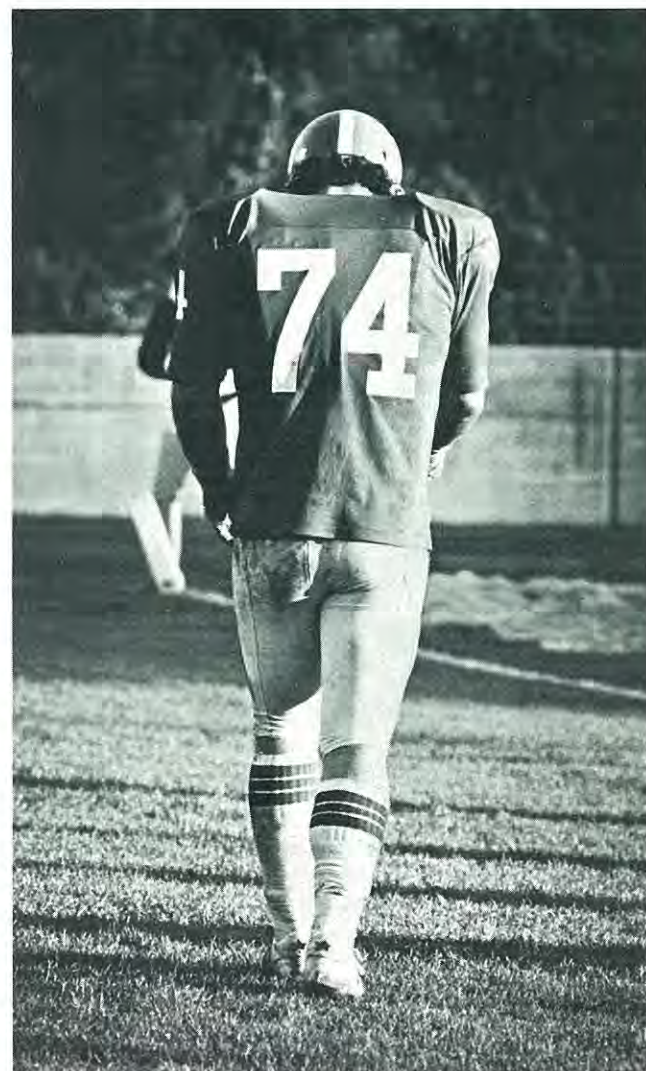

Though failing to capitalize on three first half opportunities inside the Vols 20, Rutgers gained a 7-7 halftime deadlock when Ed McMichael — who completed 11 of 12 passes for 174 yards on the day — hit Tim Odell for 23 yards after an Ed Steward interception and then found David Dorn for a 37-yard TD toss with five seconds remaining in the half. A pair of Kennan Startzell field goals (43 and 32) in the third period proved the difference. Mark Pineiro's defensive gem saved the day with the seconds ticking off and preserved the Scarlet's 13-7 win.

Frank Burns, whose victory was celebrated all the way home, granted that it was the “greatest win of my coaching career,” and felt that “somebody was looking down on us today.” He also knew that one game does not a season make. It nevertheless came close.

That 5-2 mark taken to Tennessee was fashioned on victories over Holy Cross (28-0), Bucknell (16-14), Princeton (38-14), Connecticut (26-14), and William and Mary (24-0). Penn State and Temple had run up over 40 points each in wins over the Scarlet.

Rutgers had season highs of 400 total yards and 234 passing yards in the Holy Cross opener as Ted Blackwell gained 108 yards rushing on 16 carries and scored twice. Tim Odell and David Dorn accumulated 92 yards each on receptions and McMichael went 16 of 21 for 224 yards. Deron Cherry was off on the road to the MVP title with a 31-yard interception for a touchdown.

The tables were reversed a week later when over 77,000 watched as the Scarlet gave up 449 yards to the Nittany Lions while gaining only eight rushing yards. McMichael, who passed his severest test with flying colors, was 11 for 23 and 168 yards, including a spectacular 72-yard TD connection to Dorn.

Dino Down, But Bounced Back

Bucknell was tough but Startzell's field goals of 46, 44 and 32 tied the Rutgers record for a game and Blackwell added 152 yards on 30 carries and a score from seven yards out. Rutgers picked up 311 yards and ran up 335 the next week at Princeton for a 38-14 win. The Scarlet racked up 254 rushing yards as Dorn, Lester Johnson, Bryant Moore and Brian Crockett scored. An 84-yard punt return by Ken Smith further highlighted the game.

Temple tore up the Rutgers Stadium turf with 489 total yards in a 41-20 romp even though McMichael went 14 of 27 for 176 yards, 75 on five receptions by Odell. Dorn, still at tailback at this stage, gained an even 100 yards on 22 carries.

Rutgers, beset by injuries to key people, put together a pair of fine games, limiting Connecticut to a season-low 159 yards and shutting out William and Mary while giving up only a low of 46 air yards. Startzell booted a career-long 48-yard field goal at Storrs as Jim Dumont debuted as a linebacker with a pair of interceptions and McMichael went 16 for 24 including a scoring toss to Steve Pfirman.

Dumont came back the next week to record 16 tackles at W & M as Al Ray made his debut with 123 yards on 21 carries after Blackwell was lost for the season with a knee injury. Ray scored twice on his way to the season's rushing title, besting Blackwell by just 40 yards.

A week off allowed the Scarlet to get relatively healthy and prepare for Tennessee. It was that preparation that Vols coach Johnny Majors cited as one of the factors for the upset. Little mentioned in the game reports, that preparation was absolutely superb.

Fear was that the Knights would not come down for the Army game in Giants Stadium the next week. But, the landing in Newark reminded the squad that it would be back in action nearby in a few days and 344 yards later, Rutgers had its third shutout, limiting the Cadets to 80 rushing yards. McMichael was 11 of 17 for 197 yards and Ray ran for 96 including a nifty 21-yard scoring burst. Startzell hit field goals of 35 and 32 and Cherry booted six times for a neat 47.7-yard average.

Rutgers Stadium, Home of the Scarlet Knights

Villanova visited and victimized the high flying Knights, 32-17, as Wildcat fullback Don Ziesel had the best day against Rutgers all year. He carried 24 times for 155 yards and scored twice and the only home counters were Dorn's short run and 48-yard reception and Startzell's 27-yard field goal.

The Scarlet, however, bounced back on a Sunday afternoon in Louisville to close the season on a high note. Ray scored on runs of 59 and one yard, Pineiro on a 35-yard interception return and Startzell on a 29-yard boot. Ray picked up a career and season-high 183 yards on 29 carries, the big contribution to a season-high 268 yards rushing.

A good season? You can believe it, and not all contained in one game. Burns' record blossomed to 58-19-1 for seven seasons and 316,499 fans, including 84,256 at Neyland Stadium and 77,309 at Beaver Stadium, realized that Rutgers, with a capital R, is for real.

The Associated Press believed it with recognition of 10 Scarlet athletes. Third team All America Dino Mangiero was a first team All-East choice and Kevin Kurdyla and Deron Cherry were second team picks. Tim Odell, Pete Honeyford, Frank Naylor and Ed McMichael were offensive honorable mentions and Ed Steward, Mark Freeman and Ken Smith, defensive hm's.

Cherry was named the team's most valuable player and received the Homer Hazel Trophy and the coveted Touchdown Club Trophy went to Startzell who completed his superb career with 261 points on 49 field goals and 124 extra points. Mangiero, who exemplified his spiritual leadership with his leap to the goal post cross bar at halftime in Knoxville, and Kurdyla shared the David Bender lineman trophy. McMichael justly earned the George T. Cronin Trophy as the squad's most improved player. He was also named Player of the Year by the New Jersey Football Writers.

Like a diamond, let it be declared, a Rutgers is . . . forever.

Giants Stadium, The Second Home

The 1980 Outlook

NEW DECADE DAWNS

The Touchdown Club invited "Woody" Hayes to speak to its first Spring Football Kick-off and Awards Dinner in April and the controversial former coach was everything that the group expected — witty, urbane, colloquial and positive.

But, Frank Burns stole the show.

His reaction to some of the banter about the upcoming game with Alabama was: "When I was first told about six years ago that we would be playing Alabama in 1980 it didn't bother me a damn bit because I figured by that time I'd be fired."

Seventy-nine games have gone by since that approximate time and Burns has won nearly 75 per cent of them. And, the Alabama game is now about to happen. Yet, Burns enters the 1980 season with more on his mind.

"I know a lot of people are talking about Alabama but we've got 10 other teams on the schedule also. I'm a lot more concerned about Temple right now than I am about Alabama because we open the season against Temple in Franklin Field.

"But, I'm looking forward to the season. Our senior class may be the strongest I've ever been associated with and the challenge ahead may be the greatest we've ever faced."

Rutgers opens the 1980's with a schedule that includes road contests with Temple, Cornell, Syracuse, Army and Virginia. At home are games with Cincinnati, Princeton, William and Mary, West Virginia and Colgate. And, defending national champ Alabama in Giants Stadium.

The Scarlet Knights have a series edge only over W & M (4-3), Temple (5-4) and Colgate (17-15). Against the others, it has not gone well over the years. Princeton (16-53-1), Army (2-11), Cornell (4-5), Syracuse (1-8-1), Virginia (0-3) and West Virginia (1-4-2) enter this season's games with advantages. The collective edge against the nine is 50-106-4.

Blackwell, Dorn, Odell, McMichael Ready for 1980

Deron Cherry — 1979 MVP

Alabama and Cincinnati are first-time opponents and Temple, Princeton, W & M and Army are returnees from last year's schedule. In the most recent games with the opponents, Rutgers comes off wins over Princeton (38-14), W & M (24-0), Army (20-0), all last year, and, in 1977, Cornell (30-14), in 1975, over Syracuse (21-10). Virginia was a 41-0 winner over Rutgers in 1962 and West Virginia a victor by 27-7 in 1923. Temple won last year, 41-20, and Colgate, in 1978, by 14-9.

The optimism centers on the return of 29 lettermen, 17 of whom were full-time starters last season and 25 of whom have picked up starting assignments so far in their careers.

In senior quarterback Ed McMichael and senior offensive tackle Kevin Kurdyla, Burns feels he has two of the best football players in the East. McMichael, the New Jersey Football Writer's Player of the Year in 1979, completed 58.8 per cent of his passes a year ago in his first full season, hitting on 124 of 211 aerials for seven touchdowns. Kurdyla helped clear the way for 1,939 rushing yards and 1,548 passing yards.

McMichael will have his running corps back almost intact with senior Ted Blackwell and junior Albert Ray leading the pack. Splitting the season almost, Ray gained a team-leading 567 yards after Blackwell's injury halted his production of 527 yards after six games. Ray had 107 carries for the year, Blackwell, 100.

Junior Bryant Moore added 301 yards (103 against Tennessee) and David Dorn, who started the season at tailback before moving exclusively to the flanker post, had 356 yards on 90 running attempts.

Dorn and senior split end Tim Odell give the Scarlet two of the finest receivers around. Together last year, they had 61 receptions, Odell catching 34 and Dorn gaining just two yards more with 468. Blackwell added nine, Ray, 13, and Moore, three, all out of the backfield.

Though four-year starter George Carter is gone from the tight end post, Steve Pфирman had several starts last year and came up with nine receptions and is an effective blocker. His blocking skills will abet those of Kurdyla and two other returning starters across the offensive front, junior center Frank Naylor and sophomore guard Tony Cella.

Four experienced performers, seniors Mike Kubas and Joe Curry, junior Pete George and sophomore Rich Spitzer, should fill in the vacancies.

Defensively, though the loss of Dino Mangiero will be evident, five men with starting experience should make the Scarlet solid as well as sizeable. Junior Mike Rustemeyer (260) is the most veteran but juniors Bill Pickel (250), Nasario Dunn (235), Ray Moore (230) and Andy Carino (230) have played well and should be bulwarks for two more seasons.

The linebacking corps, suspect at the beginning of the 1979 campaign, appears solid again with vets Ed Steward and Jim Dumont holding down the inside posts and Mike Knight right behind. The outside job is up for grabs among a host of hopefuls, including senior Jeff Blanchard, a part-time starter for the past two seasons. Steward was an honorable mention All-American two years ago as a middle guard but moved to linebacker halfway through the past season and led the squad with five interceptions.

Seniors Deron Cherry and Ken Smith are superb athletes and steady a secondary that lost Mark Freeman at the free safety spot. Cherry, who also handled the punting chores and averaged 41.3 yards per boot, may move around in the area while junior Mark Pineiro and senior Ira Williams or sophomore Bob Ciampaglio will fill the vacant posts.

Replacing such key performers as Mangiero, co-captain Pete Honeyford, Carter and Freeman are the chief tasks for Burns and his largely revised coaching staff. Depth, the constant cry of coaches, is also a concern that Burns hopes partly to solve by the quick development of his 1979 recruits and the current crop, which seems formidable in the needy areas.

Helping Burns solve his problems are three new coaches. George DeLeone, Earle Mosely and Tom Sherman were all active in the spring, DeLeone with the defensive line, Mosely with the defensive backs and Sherman with the receivers. The group replaces Bob Naso, who departed for the head job at Columbia; Dick Curl, now Virginia's offensive coordinator; and Pete Savino, who became a member of the business world last winter.

Two others, Mike Jacobs and Greg Gigantino, have taken on full-time status with duties with the defensive ends and centers, respectively.

The off-season also saw one other move when former defensive line coach Ted Cottrell took on the assignment of directing the linebackers while serving also as defensive coordinator. Bill Speranza and Jim Taigia are back in their established positions as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, respectively.

The record of the past decade promotes a sense of optimism for the Scarlet. The seventies produced a 74-35-1 record, a winning percentage of better than 68 per cent. Over the final five seasons of the decade, Rutgers won over 80 per cent of its games, winning 45 of 56 contests and taking no fewer than eight victories each year. The record shows 9-2, 11-0, 8-3, 9-3, and 8-3 slates.

What could be better? Maybe the 80's!

The Players

To The Kid On The End Of The Bench

Champions once sat where you're sitting, kid.

The Football Hall of Fame (and every other Hall of Fame) is filled with names of people who sat, week after week, without getting a spot of mud on their well-laundered uniforms.

Generals, senators, surgeons, prize-winning novelists, professors, business executives started on the end of a bench, too. Don't sit and study your shoe tops. Keep your eye on the game.

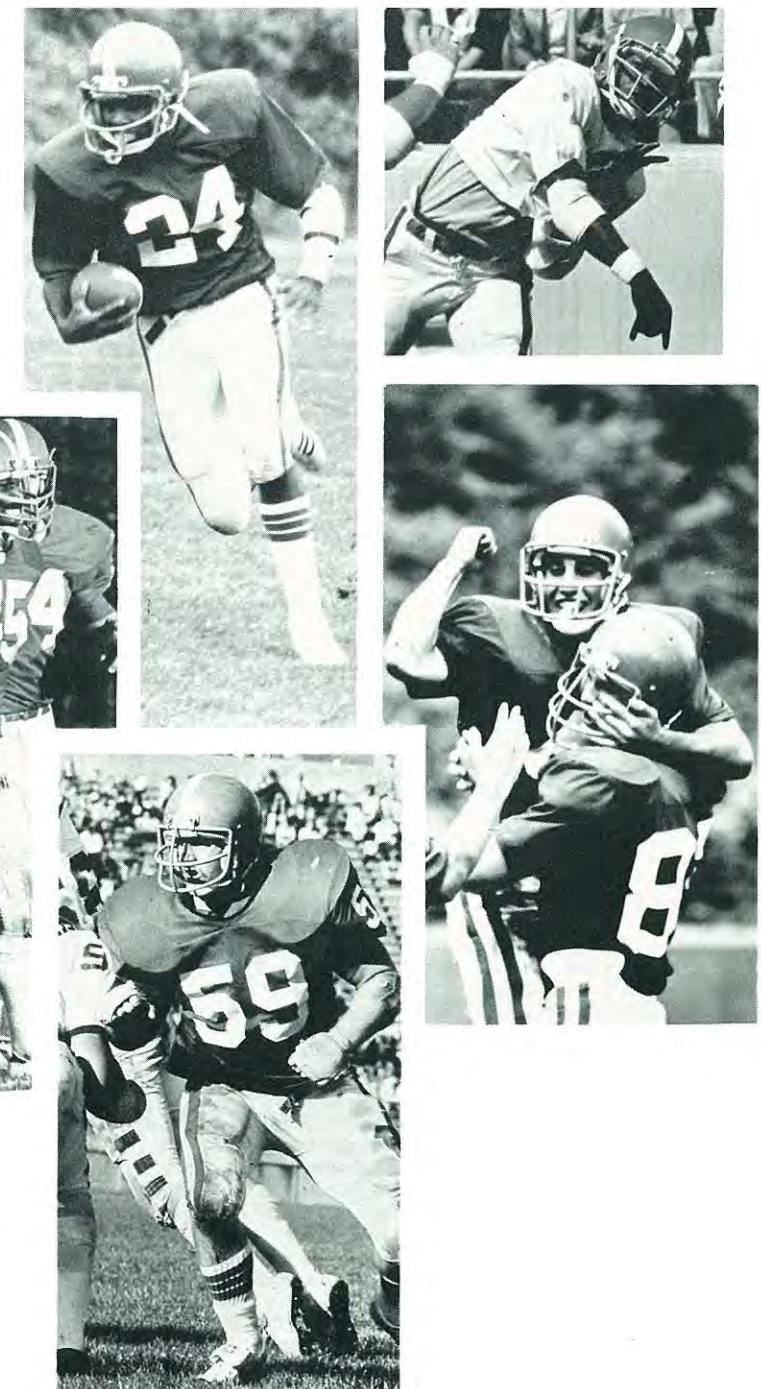

Watch for defensive lapses.

Look for offensive opportunities.

If you don't think you're in a great spot, wait until you see how many would like to take it away from you at next spring practice.

What you do from the bench this season could put you on the field next season, as a player, or back in the grandstand as a spectator.

A United Technological message as published in the Wall Street Journal.

1979 Scarlet Knights

Notes and Notables

During the past decade, Rutgers has posted a 75-35-1 record, a .683 winning percentage. In the five final years of the 70's, the record has been 45-11, a mark that translates to a winning percentage of .803. Frank Burns' record for the recent seven seasons is 58-19-1 (.743). For the pair of earlier decades, the Scarlet Knights were 57-31 (.648) in the 60's and 42-44-1 (.491) for the 50's.

The 1980 season is year 111 for Rutgers football. The first intercollegiate game was played on Nov. 6, 1869, against Princeton in New Brunswick, Rutgers winning, 6-4. The Rutgers-Princeton series, which has seen 70 games, will come to an end with this year's Sept. 27 contest in Rutgers Stadium.

Rutgers Stadium will celebrate its 42nd anniversary in 1980. The 23,000-seat stadium, still one of the most esthetic around, was dedicated on Nov. 5, 1938, and was the scene that day of one of the most memorable of Scarlet Knight victories. The stunning 20-17 win over Princeton was the first Scarlet victory over the Tigers since 1869. Rutgers has had 31 winning home seasons, 11 of them perfect. The Scarlet Knights enjoyed 20 consecutive wins between losses to Connecticut in 1974 and to Colgate in 1978.

The Scarlet Knights will play just one regular season game in Giants Stadium this season, an Oct. 11 contest with defending national champion Alabama, the first-ever meeting between the teams. Rutgers defeated Columbia, 47-0, in the first intercollegiate game at the Meadowlands in 1976 (10/23) and completed its undefeated campaign there that year with a 17-9 victory over Colgate (10/20). Penn State scored a 45-7 win over the Scarlet in 1977 (9/2) but the Scarlet shutout both Princeton 24-0 (9/30) and Columbia, 69-0 (10/28), during the 1978 regular season. A participant in Garden State Bowl I on Dec. 16, 1978, Rutgers lost to Arizona State, 34-18. Last season, the Scarlet was a 20-0 winner over Army. The Giants Stadium record is 5-2.

Sixteen Scarlet athletes have won four letters since 1972, the first year freshmen were allowed to play varsity ball since 1954. Dwight Lipscomb and Tom Holmes were the first to turn the trick and Nate Toran and John Alexander executed the feat in 1976. Mike Fisher, Dan Pfabe and Elvin Washington won four awards between 1974 and 1977, and six made the roster through 1978 — Tim Blanchard, John Bucci, Sam Davis, John Gallo, Jim Hughes and Glen Kehler. Last year, Dino Mangiero, Kennan Startzell and George Carter entered the elite circle. Four more have a shot this year — David Dorn, Kevin Kurdyla, Ken Smith and Ed Steward.

Three Rutgers players, all selected to All-America teams between 1914 and 1918 by Walter Camp, were pioneer members of professional football teams in the mid-west, the precursors of today's NFL squads. Bob "Nasty" Nash, Al "Budge" Garrett and Paul Robeson played together on the Akron Pros in 1920. Nash and Garrett played a year earlier in the initial season of the American Professional Football Association for the Massillon Tigers with Nash as the coach. Robeson played for three seasons on three different teams, Akron, the Hammond Pros and the Milwaukee Badgers. Nash ended his pro career with the New York Giants in 1925, the first year of the franchise, purchased by Tim Mara for $500.

Rutgers accumulated 781 total yards against Colgate in 1974, a season high in the nation and a team record.

The Scarlet defense was ranked among the nation's top 10 in four categories in 1975 — fourth in total defense and in scoring defense, eighth in rushing and ninth in pass defense. Along the way, Rutgers put together 19 straight periods in which it did not allow a touchdown from scrimmage. The offense established school records for total yardage, rushing yardage, rushing attempts and total plays.

Four authentic, 24-karat first team All-Americans have played football at Rutgers. Ranging over a period of 45 years, the selections by recognized agencies, include Paul Robeson (1917-18), Homer Hazel (1923-24) who is also a Hall of Famer, William Austin (1958) and Alex Kroll (1961). Between 1913 and 1918, four other Rutgers players were selected to the second and third teams by Walter Camp. Howard Talman was named twice to Camp's third team, in 1913 as a guard and in 1914 as a halfback. Bob Nash was a second team tackle in 1914, Al Garrett, a third team guard in 1916, and Frank Kelley a third team halfback in 1919.

With the perfect 11-0 record in 1976, Rutgers was the first major college team in 19 years and only the sixth in NCAA history to lead the nation in three defensive categories. The Scarlet Knight defense allowed just 7.4 points a game, permitted only 83.9 yards rushing per contest and limited opponents to 179.2 yards in total defense per game.

Dino Mangiero joined the ranks of Scarlet All-Americans last season when he was selected to the Associated Press' third team. Ed Steward, a starter at linebacker this year as a senior, was an honorable mention as a middle guard in 1978 and Nate Toran was an AP third teamer in 1975 and a second teamer in 1976.

Jim and Bob Dumont give Rutgers its third set of twins since the middle sixties, and in all cases, one of the siblings has been named Bob. Bob and Ron Kenny of Closter played as quarterback and tackle between 1963 and 1966 and the Hynoskis, Bob and Walt, were a defensive back-wide receiver duo between 1975 and 1978. The Dumonts could start together in 1980 as sophomores, Jim resuming his starting role from last year and Bob taking over as a defensive end. To tell them apart, check the front teeth. Bob's have been chipped.

The final 1979 NCAA Division I-A statistics listed three Scarlet players, all juniors. Scoring leader David Dorn was 23rd among the nation's scorers with 6.7 points per game (74 total); quarterback Ed McMichael was 19th in passing efficiency tied at a 124 rating with Roch Hontas of Tulane; and cornerback Ken Smith finished seventh among punt returners with a 12.6 average.

In 1979, Rutgers limited opponents to 261.5 yards a game to place 11th in the country in total defense. The Scarlet Knights lost the ball only 18 times to finish in a third place tie with Navy, Clemson and East Carolina in the turnover lost column.

Just off the list of the nation's top 13 field goal kickers, Kennan Startzell completed his career tied for ninth among the nation's all-time specialists. With 13 of 19 last year, Startzell was successful on 49 career goals and scored 261 points over his career.

Five offensive and five defensive performers were recognized by the Associated Press for All-East honors. Defensive tackle Dino Mangiero was a first team choice and offensive tackle Kevin Kurdyla and defensive back Deron Cherry were second team picks. Split end Tim Odell, offensive guard Pete Honeyford, center Frank Naylor, quarterback Ed McMichael, linebacker Ed Steward, free safety Mark Freeman and cornerback Ken Smith received honorable mention notice.

Rutgers could have as many as six men competing in the pro ranks in 1980. Dino Mangiero, Kennan Startzell and Mark Freeman were picked up as free agents by Kansas City, Boston and Washington, respectively, following the draft. Don Harris has been with the Redskins for three seasons and was joined by John Alexander in the spring. Alexander was once a Miami Dolphin. Dan Gray remains on the Detroit Lions roster.

In 1979, Rutgers was better on the road than at home, managing only a 2-2 mark in Rutgers Stadium but going 5-1 on the road and 1-0 at a neutral site. The Scarlet Knights won all three outings below the Mason-Dixon line, defeating William and Mary, Tennessee and Louisville.

Outlook

Wayne Hardin led the Owls to a 10-2 record in 1979 and to a victory over California in Garden State Bowl II. The Owls ended the season with a 17th-place national ranking in both the AP and UPI final polls. However, the Owls lost 13 of 22 starters including quarterback Brian Broomell and running back Mark Bright, two of the Owls key performers. Replacing both Broomell and Bright will be a difficult chore for Hardin. All-America candidate Gerald Lucear is back to handle duties as a wide receiver and he finds support from veteran running backs Kevin Duckett and Sherman Myers. Both the offensive and defensive line lost some key players but Hardin has a number of capable prospects waiting in the wings. The linebacking and defensive back corps will need some work but Hardin is confident his defensive charges will rise to the occasion in 1980.

1979 RECORD: 2-9

Outlook

With 52 lettermen returning from last season's young squad, Cincinnati may develop into a team to be reckoned with in 1980. The Bearcats have 24 letterwinners on offense and 28 on defense but the key situation appears to be at quarterback where three sophomore signal-callers will be battling for the top spot. Depth will be a problem at the running back positions but the offensive line looks solid. The Bearcat receiving corps is solid with veteran Ralph Williams back in 1980. The defensive line is strong at all spots and the linebacking chores will be handled by a number of experienced veterans. The secondary suffered only one loss via graduation and that unit may be the most experienced on the 1980 Bearcat team. Kicking duties will be in the hands of veterans Rich Karlis and Phil Peckich.

1979 RECORD: 5-4

Outlook

Princeton football enters the 1980 season with a spirited sense of optimism. In terms of quantity, Frank Navarro won't be losing much from the squad that helped turn around the program at Princeton. Part of the growing optimism surrounding the Tiger program centers on the fact that a talented class of sophomores and juniors return in 1980. The offensive unit is experienced with all the receivers back, as well as both starting running backs, two starters in the offensive line, and a quarterback who saw a good deal of action last fall. A total of 16 lettermen, including seven starters, return to a unit that averaged 295 yards a game in total offense last year. Defensively the Tigers are not quite in the same shape as the offense. The defensive secondary was hard hit by graduation with the loss of three starters. The line lost two regulars and the linebacking situation is unsettled. Fifteen lettermen, including five starters, will be back in 1980.

1979 RECORD: 5-4

Outlook

The Big Red will field another competitive team paced by a strong group of senior gridders. Bob Blackman expects his defense will be vastly improved with a number of key players returning for action. The linebacker corps may be the best unit on the team with five veteran players in the Cornell camp. The defensive backfield is a concern of Blackman's and he is faced with filling a number of holes created by graduation. The offense also has experienced players returning in the backfield but the loss of six of the seven starters on the line will cause a problem. Cornell is known as a potent running team but the loss of the offensive linemen is expected to cause some blocking problems for the Big Red backs. Three experienced running backs and a veteran quarterback will be on hand in 1980 along with the Big Red's top receiver of a year ago, Mark Turley, QB Mike Ryan and tailbacks Tom Weidenkopf, Steve Vago and Bob Muha are expected to pace the Cornell offense.

Outlook

Alabama's 1979 SEC championship was the 17th won by the Crimson Tide in the history of the league. The Crimson Tide won SEC crowns in 1933, 1934, 1937, 1945, 1953, 1961, 1964, 1965, 1966, 1971, 1972, 1973, 1974, 1975, 1977, 1978 and 1979. The closest challenger to Alabama in the number of titles won are Georgia and Tennessee with eight each. Heading into the 1980 season, the Tide carries a string of 21 consecutive victories, the nation's longest winning streak. Alabama was 12-0 in 1979 and returns six All-SEC players in 1980, including DE E.J. Junior, LB Tom Boyd, DT Byron Braggs, FS Jim Bob Harris, SS Tommy Wilcox and RB Major Ogilvie. The Crimson Tide will have to come up with a quarterback to replace the graduated Steadman Shealy. Otherwise, things look good in Tuscaloosa for the 1980 campaign.

HOMEcoming

Outlook

William & Mary finished 4-7 last year, the first losing season for the Indians in three years. An inconsistent offense plagued the Tribe while a solid defense had to spend too much time on the field. With the new decade comes a new head coach, Jimmy Laycock, a 31-year old William & Mary grad ('71) who will attempt to rebuild the Indians. "There is a lot of hard work to be done. We hope to have an exciting offense and a hard-nosed defense and we will work hard towards accomplishing those goals," says Laycock. W&M returns 38 lettermen, including seven starters on defense which should be a strong point again. The Indians will have to put together an offensive unit but the wide tackle six defense will be rugged and experienced.

Outlook

Graduation claimed quarterback Bill Hurley, who set 16 passing records, and wide receiver Art Monk, a record-holder in six categories, but the Orange returns seven starters on offense and seven on defense in 1980. The Orange will be looking for a new signal-caller to direct the offense and the leading candidate appears to be junior Dave Warner. The running game is solid with the return of Joe Morris, Ken Mandeville and Dennis Hartman. Morris has had back-to-back 1,000-yard campaigns and ranks fifth in career rushing (2,373 yards) with two years to go. The defensive line lost a number of key players but the offensive line ranks as one of the best units on the team. Kicking specialist Gary Anderson is one of the best in the East but the Orange punting game may lack consistency.

Outlook

Lack of depth and the absence of a proven quarterback surface as two deep concerns for new Cadet coach Ed Cavanaugh. Three candidates will be battling for the QB slot with T.D. Decker, a starter against Navy last year, and Jerry Bennett leading the charge. The running back situation is unclear as a result of injuries but Gerald Walker appears ready to make a sizeable contribution in 1980. The receiving corps is staffed with outstanding front-line players but depth seems to be a major problem. The offensive line will field a returning letterman at every position while the defensive line will have to replace All-America nose guard George Mayes. The defensive unit will be paced by a veteran group of linebackers and defensive backs but, again, depth emerges as a critical problem. Kicking specialist Dave Aucoin offers the Cadets a solid plus after leading the Black Knights in scoring last year with 30 points.

Outlook

The Cavs return 39 lettermen from a team which notched six wins in 11 games and came within one win of a Tangerine Bowl bid. With 16 starters among the returning lettermen, Bestwick will have the unaccustomed luxury of experience at nearly every position and will concentrate on developing depth. Virginia appears to be experienced, particularly in the interior offensive and defensive lines, at linebacker, and in the offensive backfield. The Cavaliers boast a host of potential all-star candidates with the best bets being Tommy Vigorito, Greg Taylor and Brian Musselman on offense and Stuart Anderson and Pat Chester on defense. Weaknesses could be the receiving corps and depth at several positions.

1979 RECORD: 5-6

Outlook

With 21 of 24 starters returning and a new head coach, Don Nehlen, on hand, 1980 may prove to be an outstanding year for the Mountaineers. The offensive unit is strong with the return of quarterback Oliver Luck, who passed for 1,292 yards a year ago, and a talented group of running backs and receivers. Senior Bob Alexander, who rushed for 656 yards, will join Eldridge Dixon and Curlin Beck in the backfield while senior Cedric Thomas and junior Darrell Miller will be on the wings. The offensive line has size but depth and speed on the line is a concern. Defensively, talented outside linebackers anchor a strong line. Most of the defensive backfield returns intact but the unit lacks speed and has not caused enough vital turnovers. Depth at inside linebacker surfaces as another Nehlen worry.

Outlook

Prospects for 1980 will be a continuation of the strengths that evolved in 1979 — namely defense, where the Red Raiders return 10 of 11 starters on a unit which finished 14th in the nation against the rush. Even if defense was the mainstay of the Red Raiders last season, the offense was hardly the forgotten weak sister and should show improvement after a solid year of experience. The offensive unit returns all but two starters, however, the loss of quarterback John Marzo and halfback Angelo Colosimo will force Dunlap to come up with replacements at two critical positions. Depth will favor the Red Raiders in 1980 as 18 players who performed in back up roles a year ago will be in the Colgate camp. Obviously, optimism abounds at Colgate in 1980.

TOUCHDOWN CLUB

YOUR TOUCHDOWN CLUB MEMBERSHIP PUTS YOU CLOSER TO THE EXCITEMENT

There is something very special about a Rutgers University Football Saturday Afternoon. The crisp Autumn air is alive with the energy of competition on the field and the electric excitement in the stands. And, the Scarlet Knights responding not only to the challenge of the opposition, but also to the spirited support of their fans.

Now, the 80's are here and major college football has come to New Jersey. Everything about Rutgers Football is bigger and more exciting. The games are more action-packed and more meaningful, with opponents like Alabama, Penn State, Kentucky, Auburn, Tennessee, Miami, Boston College and others. And, the need for support on and off the field is greater than ever before. This is where the Touchdown Club comes in.

The Touchdown Club is the only booster club for Rutgers Football. For more than 40 years, the club has provided outstanding support, both vocal and financial, while affording its members the unequalled opportunity of being a real part of Rutgers Football. Today, members gain the prestige of being associated with the best football program on the college level in New Jersey.

When you join the Touchdown Club, in a very real sense you join the Rutgers Football "Team". The modest annual $25.00 fee entitles you to participate in the following:

- Weekly Luncheon Meetings — During the season, Frank Burns and his staff provide commentary on past and future games. The meetings are highlighted by question and answer sessions that give members the chance to provide Coach Burns with their "coaching insights".
 - Fund Raising — On a regular basis, members work with business and community leaders to help meet the financial demands of the Rutgers Football program.
 - Rutgers Football Media Guide — Each member receives a free copy of this official, informative publication.
 - Special Outings — During the season, members are invited to visit with coaches and players during workouts, practices, clinics, etc.
 - Booster Day — Members are invited to a pre-game tailgate party prior to a specially designated Rutgers Home Game. Each member receives a pair of complimentary tickets for this game.
 - Annual Awards Dinner — At the end of the season, members and their families gather with players, coaches, athletic administrators and guest speakers.
- There are many benefits to be derived from membership in the Touchdown Club. But, perhaps Coach Frank Burns put it best when he said, "Our boys give a tremendous effort to compete on the major college level . . . knowing they have the support of the boosters from the Touchdown Club makes it easier."

RUTGERS — THE STATE UNIVERSITY

Rutgers University is many things. It is the State University of New Jersey, composed of 21 major instructional units, including the eighth oldest college in the United States. It is an institution dedicated to serving the needs of the state through various units located in Camden, Newark and the New Brunswick area. It is the only educational institution in this country blending a heritage as a colonial college in the 18th century with the roles of a land-grant college in the 19th century and a modern, complex state university in this century.

Rutgers University is a place where most of its 50,000 undergraduate and graduate students are affiliated with one of the moderately-sized college communities. Each college has its own identity, traditions, special programs and individual philosophy. At the same time, every student benefits from the many academic and cultural advantages available only at a large, diversified state university.

Rutgers is large, but since it is composed of many smaller, more personal units, students have an expanded framework of more intimate learning environments. Located near New York, Philadelphia and the other political, economic, cultural and social centers of the Northeast, Rutgers offers an unlimited range of experiences within close proximity to its campuses. An extensive number of graduate and research programs offer an opportunity for continued enrichment and service to the community.

The Rutgers Scarlet Knights represent the 25,000 undergraduate students enrolled in the various colleges in the New Brunswick area — Rutgers College (founded in 1766, formerly Queen's College and the College of Arts and Sciences), Cook College (formerly the College of Agriculture and Environmental Science), Douglass College (formerly the New Jersey College for Women), Livingston College, the College of Engineering and the College of Pharmacy.

A colonial college in 1766, a land-grant college in 1864, a state university in 1945, Rutgers today is a thriving, growing leader among this nation's institutions of higher learning.
